

LABOR DAY IS WELL OBSERVED

Chicago Parade the Largest Ever Held—60,000 Were in Line.

AID THE STRIKERS

Money Poured Into a Wagon in the Chicago Parade for Relief Fund.

MUCH ENTHUSIASM

(Special By Scripps-McLae.) Chicago, Ill., Sept. 1.—Sixty thousand and union laborers marched in the labor day parade here today. No previous parade has ever reached it in size. The enthusiasm is intense and the streets are packed with workmen in holiday attire.

For Coal Strikers
One of the features of the parade was the hauling through the streets of a large glass covered box sixteen feet long into which the crowd showered money for the relief of the strikers in Pennsylvania.

Other Places
In Kansas City 16,000 men marched and in Cleveland 18,000. At Springfield six thousand miners paraded the streets and in New York 40,000 men were in line.

Second Time of Taking.
A dignified gentleman in Liverpool, Rev. Mr. Radley, while at religious meeting, met with a slight accident. As he was about to sit down he missed his chair and fell with a thud on the platform. When at last it came to his turn to speak the chairman introduced him in these words: "Mr. Radley will again take the floor!"

An Officeholding Family.
At Guildford, England, the other day, upon the presentation of the honorary freedom of the borough to Ferdinand Smallpiece, who for upward of a quarter of a century filled the office of town clerk, it was stated that 400 years ago exactly Thomas Smallpiece was mayor of Guildford, and since then no fewer than thirteen other members of the family have filled the chair.

Editor's Good Fortune.
"The editor had fried chicken for dinner Thursday," says C. F. Kidding in the Hamilton (Mo.) Farmers' Advocate, "but now don't jump at the conclusion that we have lost our head or spent a whole year's income on one dinner. We have a neighbor who raises chickens and who believes in the 'Fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man,' hence our good fortune."

Not a Thief in the Crowd.
A rural Virginia preacher took advantage of a neighborhood hullabaloo over a robbed chicken coop in the following manner: "Dear Friends—I've about to take up a collection for to repair this church, and I mean to say that, if I am any nigger here tonight, who had a hen in stealin' Farmer Jones' chickens I don't want him to put nuffin' in de plate."—Philadelphia Times.

His Turn to Be Hero.
A soldier in one of our hospitals, who had lost one of his arms, was rejoicing in the fact. Said he: "My great-grandfather lost a leg in the revolutionary war, and our family has been bragging over it ever since. That story is an old one, and now I am going to be the hero of the family."—Military Commonwealth.

Employees Want More Beer.
Milwaukee brewers are having trouble with their employees over the quantity of beer each man may be allowed to drink. The brewers are willing that each employee should have two quarts at noon and two more at quitting time, but the men declare that they do not see how anyone can get along with but four quarts of beer a day.

A Favorite of the King.
King Edward is a great lover of dogs and has many favorites. The present chosen and constant canine companion of his majesty is an Irish terrier named Jack. He came into the King's possession November last and now lives with his majesty, travels with him and lies beside the King's chair all day.

"The White Man's Burden."
A teacher in a New York kindergarten tells the following story: "I asked one of the larger boys the other day what he was going to do when he left school. 'Well, I won't get married,' he answered quickly. 'And why won't you?' 'Wife no good! White man's burden!' was the startling answer."

The Storing of Honey.
Honey properly stored will improve with age, and the older it is the better it will be. But kept in a damp place it soon becomes thin and watery.

NINE HEIRS WILL BE MILLIONAIRES

Sudden Wealth for Comparatively Poor People in the West.

New York, Sept. 1.—(Special).—Though at present in moderate circumstances, nine heirs of Johann and Nicholas Poyte, seven of whom are residents of this city and two of whom live in the west, expect within a short time to become millionaires. The justness of their claim to a $14,000,000 estate, consisting of property located in a suburb of the Hague, Holland, they declare, has been acknowledged by the Dutch government and negotiations are now under way for a settlement of the matter.

The Heirs
The heirs are Mrs. Ida Johanson, Mrs. Emma Gould, Mrs. Augusta Griffiths, John A. Wilkeyson and William Wilkeyson of New York, Mrs. Catherine Downs and Mrs. Sarah Velsor of Chester Park, Borough of Queens; Cooke Buell of Chicago and Mrs. Louis Tyrone of Quincy, Ill.

Through their great grandmother, Mrs. Margaret Buell, who came to this country many years ago, they are heirs and descendants of the Poytes. Mrs. Buell was a daughter of Johann Poyte, whose brother Nicholas died a bachelor.

The Family
Nicholas and his father were farmers and Johann was a blacksmith, who went from Alsace to Holland at the beginning of the last century. The property in question was then covered by water, but the Poytes recovered it by building dikes and draining out the water with a crude canal system. It consisted of several thousand acres, and the government to encourage others in similar enterprises gave them a grant to the land. Since then the property has developed into one of the most valuable suburbs of the Hague.

Cooke Buell of Chicago, is a lawyer, and has been very active in advancing the claims of the heirs.

SPARKS FROM THE WIRES.

A. J. Eddy, the Chicago lawyer, has written a book telling of his 2,000 mile automobile trip.

Miss Hazel Buckman of Chicago severely thrashed two boys who had stolen a couple of her croquet balls.

Nine year old Norman Clark of Chicago died of carbolic acid. A woman has been suspected of giving it to him.

A New York man claimed to have facial neuralgia whenever he thought of the battle of Bull Run on its anniversary. He had taken part in the battle.

Captain Edward Williams, manager of the Chicago Masonic Temple, was arrested in connection with the tax-fixing scandal, and placed under $5,000 bonds. On Tuesday a special grand jury will investigate the case.

TAFT SOUNDS NATION'S POLICY

Says the Philippines May Become Entirely Free in Time.

AID THE PEOPLE

American Capital Is for Their Benefit in Developing the Country.

IT IS WELL RECEIVED

(Special By Scripps-McLae.) Manila, September 1.—Governor Taft has sounded the keynote of the United States' policy in the Philippines. He states that the islands may look forward to an independence similar to Canada or Australia.

At A Banquet
It was at a banquet given in his honor that Governor Taft made this statement and he also said that the Americans and their capital were in the islands for the benefit of the natives.

An Independent Country
Governor Taft also hinted that when the Philippines become better educated they may hope for entire freedom if they wish it. His talk was well received by the guests at the dinner.

GAMING IN HIGH PLACES DENOUNCED

A Minister in New York Takes Saratoga to Task for Allowing It.

New York, Sept. 1.—(Special).—The Rev. Alfred E. Myers, in the pulpit of the Rev. Dr. David James Burrill, Senator Platt's pastor, in the Marble Collegiate church this evening denounced the gaming in high places which has characterized the seasons at Saratoga. He denounced the persons who have countenanced the gamblers, and he denounced the pulpit and the country and state authorities who have stood silent while the gaming flourished.

Gambling
"The gambling spirit seems to be on the increase," said he. "We have the race track gambler, the gambling house gambler, the stock exchange gambler, the corrupt manipulator of stock markets, often gambling in the necessities of life and making life harder for the poor. And then we have the amateur on trifles—and many women of good social standing follow this road from its seemingly innocent beginning to its bitter ending."

Find Farmer's Hoard.
Several jars, containing more than $9,000 in gold and paper money, were found buried in the rear of the home of Wesley Ferrens, who died recently at the age of eighty-six years near Bradyville, Ia. Ferrens had lived on the farm sixty-one years. Besides the money he left realty valued at $25,000.

Celebrates Golden Jubilee.
Slater Mary Philmina, 74 years old, one of the original band of sisters who went to Mount de Sales from Georgetown a half century ago, celebrated on July 18 the golden jubilee of her religious profession as a member of the Order of Visitation, says the Washington Star.

Large Consignment of Wool.
J. D. Wood, a rancher of Spencer, Idaho, has sent to Boston the largest consignment of wool ever shipped by one man from the west to the east. It amounted to about 130,000 pounds, which at 14 cents per pound yield Mr. Wood nearly $88,000.

Sarah Bernhardt's Ambition.
Sarah Bernhardt, the French player, is not at all sensitive in the matter of age. She is 58, does not care who knows it, and she says she has only one chief ambition—to see herself a great-grandmother before she dies.

New Discovery for Cereals.
It has been discovered that cereals may be expanded by dry heat in a moist atmosphere to three times their natural size. This makes them very palatable, their flavor being varied by the degree of heat used.

Mount Etna Elowing Away.
Mount Etna is found by Prof. Riccio to have been lowered 65 feet on the south since 1868 and twice as much on the north. The top is supposed to have been slowly blown away by the wind.

Carp Industry of Peoria.
Peoria ships annually to New York over $1,000,000 worth of German carp taken from the Illinois, for consumption as food by the Russian Jews. This is an industry by itself.

Greeks to Honor Dr. Howe.
A Samuel Gridley Howe monument fund has been started by the Greeks, who wish to erect a monument in Boston in memory of Dr. Howe's noble work for the Greek people.

MT. PELEE BREAKS OUT ONCE MORE

Ashes Found Several Hundred Miles from the Island.

DENOTATION LOUD

Fine Dust Is Thicker Than Ever Before, and Denser.

COVERS THE HARBORS

(Special By Scripps-McLae.) Roseau Dominica, B. W., Sept. 1.—Mt. Pelee has again broken forth after two months of quiet. The entire island is enclosed in smoke and ashes are falling thickly at his point from the burning mountain.

More Than Ever
The amount of dust that fell is more than ever before and is of a thicker variety. Loud denotations are heard and continued rumbling is becoming more and more noticeable each day.

Covers Port
The entire harbor at Point a Pitre is filled with ashes and fine dust fills the entire air. The daylight is half shut off by semi-darkness from the flying ashes.

DUKE BORIS WILL BE AT NEWPORT

The Russian Prince to Spend a Week as the Guest of Mrs. Ogden Mills.

New York, Sept. 1.—(Special).—Grand Duke Boris of Russia departed today for Newport where he expects to stay for about a week. It is understood that he will be the guest of Mrs. Ogden Mills. Chevalier de Schenck, the duke's private secretary, was unable to accompany the party because of illness. He was unable to leave his bed at the Waldorf-Astoria. The duke and five companions left the hotel a few minutes before one o'clock and rode to the Grand Central station, where they took the train for Providence. The plan was to take the party on a yacht from Providence to Newport.

At The Holland
R. T. Crane, Jr., and his brother, C. R. Crane, who entertained the duke in Chicago, and who have been stopping at the Holland house, departed to day also, the former going to Chicago and the latter to Greenwich, Conn.

No Outlanders Now.
It is curious how quickly and completely the word Outlander has dropped out of the South African vocabulary. Thirty months ago it was impossible to imagine any sustained conversation in which the hateful term did not recur with wearying frequency; it was impossible to take up any South African paper in which it was not to be met with at least once in every column, or any Johannesburg or Pretoria paper in which it did not occur dozens of times in a short paragraph. Now it has gone.

Lightning Took Bread and Butter.
Edward Adamson of Fort Dodge, Iowa, had a narrow escape from death from a lightning flash which descended upon his house in a thunder storm on Sunday evening. As it was he was badly shocked, and the lightning spent its force upon the piece of bread and butter which he was eating at the time, throwing it violently against the wall, butter side down, where it hung, while its prospective consumer lay unconscious on the floor.—St. Paul Dispatch.

Bats Turned Out People.
Bats ruined Canneman, in Java. Prior to 1890 the village, which is situated near the large and flourishing town of Besuki, in the extreme north-western corner of the island, enjoyed a fair measure of prosperity. But in the autumn of that year a monstrous colony of these uncanny creatures took possession of the house of the headman of the district and successfully defied all efforts made to expel them.

Duchess Revisits London.
The duchess of Albany was one of the most interesting members of the English royal family, who live in another country, in London for the coronation. Of late years she has spent most of her time principally in Germany, where her only son has become a petty German sovereign, and where, it is rumored, her daughter, the Princess Alice, is expected to make an advantageous foreign match.

A Millionaire's Occupation.
Miss Sara Van Allen, daughter of James J. Van Allen, our most exclusive millionaire, filled out the marriage license blank reserved for "occupation of father" with "nothing." Van Allen has been working at that all his life.

SUGAR INDUSTRY'S BRIGHT OUTLOOK

Better Than Ever Before, with Brighter Prospects for the Future.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 1.—(Special).—There is a bright outlook for the sugar beet industry of the country, according to a report made public today by Secretary Wilson showing the progress of this industry in 1901. It was prepared by Charles F. Saylor, a special agent of the agricultural department. If those who engage in this industry are successful, the profits are large, but the production of beet sugar is attended by many risks of failure. Large sums are required to develop the industry, and one of the greatest handicaps is the necessity of the employment of a large number of skilled and unskilled laborers. The report says:

In The States
"The consumption of sugar in the United States during 1902, calculated from the figures for 1901, will be approximately 2,500,000 tons, and the production of both cane and beets will reach nearly 500,000 tons. This leaves 2,000,000 tons to be brought in from outside the United States proper. Of this amount Porto Rico should supply 100,000 tons and Hawaii 200,000, a total of 400,000. Deducting this amount from 2,000,000 tons leaves 1,600,000 to be brought from foreign sources paying duty. While the above are only estimates in round numbers, they are believed to be substantially correct.

Home Industries
"It is the ambition of those encouraging the sugar industry to establish factories enough at least to supplant this foreign supply. Making due allowance for failure of factories to reach in actual production their full capacity under ideal conditions, it would require 5,000 factories having a capacity of 500 tons of beets daily to produce this sugar. There will doubtless be an increase in the production of cane sugar in the south, which should be taken into account. But for convenience of calculation, it is here assumed that he increase will be in beet sugar production only. To equip and build these factories will require an investment of capital of $250,000,000.

STATE NOTES
LaCrosse society people gave a novel raft boat party last week.

Several residences at Menominee were entered during the past week.

Silver ore was found Saturday on the farm of Frank Fuika at Prairie du Chien.

An attractive program for the coming year has been outlined by the Waukesha Woman's club.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Thayer, two of Sheboygan's oldest citizens celebrated their fiftieth anniversary.

The forest fires in the vicinity of Rhineclander which have occasioned considerable alarm for several weeks have been reported to be dying out.

Mantowoc citizens have raised $1,000 of the $7,000 asked by the Burnham Glove company of Chicago to induce them to move their plant to that city.

D. H. Stoddard, who has had charge of installing the machinery in the kaolin plant at Glenwood has completed the work and has left the city to work elsewhere.

D. R. Davis, manager of the Eau Claire paper mill has been for several days in Menominee with a view to establishing a branch pulp grinding mill in that city.

William Glenn and Thomas Mulroony of Boscobel quarreled Sunday over a keg of beer and Glenn is now in a serious condition from several cuts received from Mulroony.

Within the past weeks dozens of the summer guests of the hotels near Waupaca have left. The Chino-Lakes has had one of the most prosperous seasons in many years.

Sheboygan citizens have found difficulty in presenting to Bernard O'Sullivan, special agent for the Treasury department at Washington, a suitable site for their new postoffice building.

During the past few months improvements to the extent of several thousand dollars have been made in the Racine opera house. Racine citizens claim to have the only opera house in the United States built by money contributed by laboring men.

America's Envied Complaint.

An American professor has found the way. Instead of bringing up children on historical novels, he bids who parents turn the eyes of the youngsters upon the living, breathing, roaring, booming capitals of modern commerce. Instead of Ixion, Yerkess, instead of Coeur de Lion, Pierpont Morgan; instead of Czarinas, Coronas. America's complaint just now is the dollar.—London Globe.

Last Irish Toll Bridge.

Waterford possesses the only toll bridge in Ireland. After 165 years' agitation a movement is now on foot for the construction of a free bridge over the River Suir.

French Colonies Prosper.

The French colonies on the west coast of Africa are increasing in importance every year, and are receiving zealous attention from the French government. The United States exported to these colonies in 1900 $657,264 worth, and received therefrom products to the value of $301,165.

In the North River, New York, the steamers Saurerites and Hesse collided. A hole was stove in the Saurerites and a panic ensued among the seventy-five passengers on board.

STRONG FEELING AGAINST GOBIN

Philadelphia Unions Denounce His Orders and Ask for Recall.

THE END IS NEAR

Senator Platt Authority for Statement That Strike Will Be Settled.

WORKMEN ATTACKED

(Special By Scripps-McLae.) Philadelphia, Pa., September 1.—Feeling over the "shoot" order of General Gobin's has created considerable comment among the labor union men in this city. At meetings held yesterday he and his orders were most warmly denounced and a petition will be sent to Governor Stone to revoke his commission.

Settle Trouble
Senator Platt of New York is authoritatively for the statement that the strike will be settled inside of a week. He would not say how, but reiterated the statement.

Attack workmen
Non-union workmen have been attacked at Tammany by the strikers and the military are stricter than ever.

One Prayer Always Answered.
A friend tells me, says "M. A. P." that he met Mr. Balfour one evening at a dinner party, when the conversation turned on the importance in life of self-confidence. My friend repeated the saying, "God give us a gold conceit of ourselves." Mr. Balfour heard it, and, bending across, added: "And that, sir, is the only prayer the gods always answer!"

Dogs at Newport.
Dogs have always been popular at Newport. Time was when it was usual to see pretty young women ride up and down Bellevue avenue with poodles of price at their sides—high priced, high-bred pets, shaven in the most astonishing designs and all decked out in fancy ribbons and bells. Fashion has changed that, but pups are more popular than ever. There are pet dogs in Newport that cost $3,000 each.

Beecher's Withering Retort.
During a speech in Brooklyn Henry Ward Beecher once denounced slavery in a merciless manner, and, among other things, remarked that better men were in Sing Sing prison than those who dealt in human flesh and blood. A pro-slavery man in the audience called out: "That isn't so!" Beecher quickly answered: "Well, you ought to know; you've been there."

Russia to Found Museum.
Russia has decided to found an archaeological museum in Sebastopol. The building is to be erected in the style of an old Christian basilica, and to be arranged for three apartments, one devoted to the Greek, one to the Roman and a third to the Byzantine period. The whole project has been entrusted to the management of Grand Duke Alexander Michailovitch.

Spanish American War Veterans.
There are 280 camps of the Spanish-American war veterans. Thirteen of them bear the name of Lawton, four of William McKinley, ten of Theodore Roosevelt, three of Guy V. Henry, three of Allyn Capron, three of Emerson H. Liscum and two of Worth Bagley.

Pin Led to Thief's Undoing.
A Paris thief, while picking a lady's pocket recently, pricked himself so severely with a pin which happened to be in her dress that he uttered a cry of pain, which led to his immediate arrest. The sum of $950 in cash was found upon him.

Rare in Wellston.

Last week we received a letter from a medicine firm containing a five-dollar bill to pay for an advertisement. Our learned postmaster, who had once seen a similar bill, pronounced it the real thing.—Wellston (O.) Tribune.

Where Women Have Rights.
In the matter of woman's rights Abyssinia is far ahead of Europe. The house with all its contents belongs to the wife, and if the husband offends her she turns him out until he is fully repentant and makes amends.

Lights on Baby Carriages.
Kent County Council has decided that baby carriages should carry lights at night, as the language of the statute regulating the lighting of vehicles is general enough to cover perambulators.

Growth of the Nails.
The nails of two fingers never grow with the same degree of rapidity. The nail of the middle finger grows with the greatest rapidity and that of the thumb the least.

DEMIES SETTLE ALL TROUBLE

STATE DELEGATION ARE ALL FOR MAYOR ROSE.

COUNTY TICKET IS CHOSEN

Assembly District Tickets Are Now Complete, and the Campaign Is On.

The only real contest in the Democratic convention on Saturday afternoon arose when a motion was made that the delegates to the state convention be instructed to use every means to secure the nomination of David S. Rose for governor. This motion brought R. M. Richmond of Evansville to his feet with a sharp protest against bridling the delegates. H. A. Molenpah of Clinton also made a protest and the motion was finally lost and the delegates will go un-instructed.

It was a Rose victory, however as he secured ten out of the twelve delegates to the state convention.

The result of the assembly district conventions were as follows:

First Assembly District

D. E. Thorpe of Milton was the chairman and F. R. Morris was secretary of this convention. They proceeded to the election of delegates to the state and congressional convention naming the following: State Convention—A. Jensen, Edgerton; R. M. Richmond, Evansville; John Hendricks, Porter; B. C. Wilson, Edgerton.

Congressional convention—A. C. Goodnough, C. F. Tallard, F. G. Borden and George Mumboldt.

For assemblyman—D. E. Thorpe, of Milton, was nominated and the nomination of county superintendent of schools was left for the county committee to fill.

Second Assembly District

In the Second Assembly District J. J. Cunningham presided as chairman and E. E. Clemons as secretary. The delegates to the state convention elected were E. H. Ryan, E. H. Connell, F. C. Burpee, I. F. Connors, Jansville, and George Turk, LaPrairie.

The delegates to the assembly convention placed no candidate in nomination and adjourned subject to the call of the county chairman.

The delegates to the congressional convention are P. J. Mount, E. F. Hemming, W. A. Murray, James Bennett, and M. M. Farley.

Third Assembly District

The Third assembly district was presided over by Cornelius Buckley of Beloit, and John Burns of the same city acted as secretary.

The delegates chosen to the state convention were W. A. Knlands, P. J. Hawkins and J. E. Burns.

W. H. Myers of the town of Beloit was nominated as the candidate for the assembly, and the delegates to the congressional convention are F. Cleary, H. A. Molenpah, and John R. Jones.

The county convention followed the assembly conventions and the following nominations were made.

Sheriff—C. C. Broughton, Evansville.

County Clerk—Fred Smith, Edgerton.

County Treasurer—Ira Jones, Town of Beloit.

Clerk of the Court—Fred Busch, Beloit.

District Attorney—Otto A. Osterreich, Jansville.

Register of Deeds—George Rodgers, Clinton.

Coroner—Joseph Williams, Afton.

The names of P. J. Mount and J. Cunningham were presented to the convention for chairman of the county committee. Mr. Mount being elected by a vote of 67 to 29.

No nominations were made for superintendent of schools in the first and second districts, it being left to the county committee to fill these vacancies. There being no further business the convention adjourned.

Mother—Now's the time to have your little ones take Rocky Mountain Tea. Keeps them well all the year. 35 cts. Smiths' Pharmacy.

ILLINOIS MAN SURPRISED.

Wasn't Expecting to See Such Mammoth Buildings and Extensive Grounds at World's Fair.

World's Fair, St. Louis, Sept. 1.—The surprise of the first time the great buildings and grounds of the World's Fair is typical of the experience of all strangers who come out to see the vast enterprise nearly two years in advance of the opening.

The Lincoln (Ill.) Herald says: "A Lincolnian who visited the site of the St. Louis World's Fair was impressed by the two things, the extent of the grounds and the size of the buildings. Expecting to find an exposition covering a limited amount of space and modest in scope, he was more than surprised to discover that St. Louis was not going to do things by halves, was planning more than a rival for the greatest exposition previously shown in history, the famous World's fair in Chicago. The grounds are twice as large, the size of the buildings far greater and the number of large exhibit buildings fifteen in place of Chicago's nine or ten."

Just Skeletons

"At present one can see but the skeletons of the great exposition halls and palaces. There is no beauty there; the painters and decorators are not due for some time yet, but the vastness of the great lines of steel, wood and masonry are awe-inspiring. It can be safely said that St. Louis is going to have a world's fair that is a world's fair."

The Grounds

"When the present grounds which are now made of loose dirt or rough land overgrown with weeds, are touched with the magic wand of the landscape gardener, a marvelous change will be wrought. The grounds afford a golden opportunity for transformation into a scene of beauty. Size, natural advantages and situation there, and it needs but the space of time and the handwork of man to make the grounds as beautiful as any seen at international expositions."

KENTUCKY JANE.
By E. Francis Moran.

I.

"My heart beats fast
When she goes past
In a dark dress trimmed with green."

II.

Ye Muse inspire my feeble pen
To sing a tuneless strain
In praise of one loved by all men—
My sweet Kentucky Jane!

III.

Around the wide world you may rove
Searching her peer in vain,
In her you've found all fair above—
Matchless Kentucky Jane!

IV.

She's beautiful, she's ardent, and
With grace doth love enchain;
She is a type of woman grand—
Winsome Kentucky Jane!

V.

Be wise and do not jest with her
With dubious meaning plain;
She's apt with her revolver—
Plucky Kentucky Jane!

VI.

And she will shoot a lever down
And smile upon him slain
Who should cast shade on her renown—
Vengeful Kentucky Jane!

VII.

Her eyes can flash a lurid spark
With temper hard to restrain,
So take a friend's advice and mark
How you treat Kentucky Jane.

VIII.

She was reared in the "dark and bloody ground,"
Comes from old Colonial strain,
And her southern drawl doth music found
From the lips of Kentucky Jane.

IX.

To sum it up in one short phrase
That I do not need explain;
I'd happy be to end my days
Blessed with Kentucky Jane.

JANESVILLE HAS NOT THESE EVILS

DRUGGISTS CAREFUL HERE

Their Soda Fountains Are Kept Clean Inside and Outside.

Janesville soda fountain habitués have reason to feel thankful that the soda drink dispensaries in this city are controlled by druggists with whom cleanliness and purity are of prime importance. Investigations by the Illinois Pure Food Commission have brought out some startling facts. Inspection of syrups used have led to a confirmation of the belief that impure liquids have been offered for sale at many fountains.

Dangerous Acids Used.

The investigation of the soda fountains which are now in operation in Chicago has just begun. Samples have been obtained from a number of places, and an analysis will be made by a corps of expert chemists. If the result show a large per cent. of acids a series of arrest will follow. The experts expect to find acids that are dangerous to the health in a large number of the concoctions which are upon sale.

Intoxicants Sold.

It has been reported that intoxicating liquors have been on sale at many fountains and an investigation along this line will also be made. Commissioners Jones and Patterson who have the crusade in charge have determined that none but wholesome ingredients shall be on sale. America during these months is emphatically the land of the soda fountain, and impurities in the ingredients employed has a far reaching effect.

Verdigris in Tanks

Already the investigations have shown that uncleanliness is a common characteristic of many of even the best fountains. The plate glass mirrors and marble fronts of the elaborate fountains are kept spotless but the interiors are rarely cleaned. At a number of places visited the interiors of the tanks contained verdigris, the accumulation of years.

No Janger Here

There is no necessity that Janesville seekers to dispel thirst should put an end to the patronage of carbonic acid drinks, because so startling revelations have been made in connection with the Chicago fountains. Certainly it would be safe to assert that there is not a soda fountain proprietor in the city whose apparatus would not bear thorough investigation. Certainly no one has ever been heard to suggest that local health officers should make an investigation.

Sympathize With Princess.

In spite of her residence abroad most of the time, Prince Leopold's widow still draws $30,000 from the British treasury every year. From the first week of her arrival, as the bride of Queen Victoria's fourth son, Duchess Helen has always been regarded with sympathetic interest by English women, for her trials began immediately and continued for many a year.

PRESIDENT EATON HAS RETURNED

BELOIT COLLEGE HEAD BACK FROM A LONG VACATION.

HAS BEEN SICK TWO YEARS

Plans for Coming Year at the Congregational School—Few Co-Eds.

President Edward Dwight Eaton of Beloit college arrived in Beloit Saturday after a year's absence in Europe. This week he will go to Chicago to attend a meeting of the board of trustees as soon as his business is transacted he will be busy with preparations for the reopening of college on the 24th of September.

Took a Vacation.

Two years ago President Eaton was stricken seriously ill at the middle of the college year, and for a time his recovery was despaired of. With all his energy he had devoted himself assiduously to the work of the college, and under the severe strain he had broken down. After a month in Mexico his health was greatly improved, and he decided to give up the position which had proved such a strain upon him. He handed in his resignation and accepted a position as pastor of an eastern church.

Canceled His Resignation.

Later on he was induced to reconsider his action, and it was decided by the trustees to allow him a year's vacation. He has been spending the past year in Europe and according to latest reports he now feels ready to return to his work with the old unselfish enthusiasm. Prof. G. L. Collier, who has been performing the duties of president during the past year, will now enter upon a twelve months' vacation.

Large Entering Class.

Prof. Densmore, the registrar of the institution was in the city a few days ago on the way to Lake Kegonsa. He said that a large number had already had handed in their applications to enter the Freshman class this fall, and that a large class was expected. Thus far there has been no evidence of that preponderance of women which characterized the entering class of a few years ago.

Co-Eds Tabooed.

Beloit college is a co-educational school, but it was clearly shown from that one year's experience that it would not be advisable to turn the college into a seminary, and since that date the number of women has been limited. Prof. Densmore said that he had not received a single application from a woman, although he supposed that the head of the women's department had received a number.

An Irishman's Advice.

In a speech in London the other day Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman told an admirable story of the advice given by an Englishman, a Scotchman and an Irishman respectively to a gentleman whose servant was constantly breaking articles in the household. The Englishman said to the employer: "Oh, get rid of him—dismiss him." The Scotchman's advice was: "Stop the money out of his wages." "But," said the master, he breaks more than his wages amount to." "Then," said the Irishman, "raise his wages."

Make Paint of Mummies.

Manufacturers of artists' colors now often use mummies in making their colors, and it is almost certain that a small percentage of some ancient Egyptian rulers went to compose some of the colors used in various R. A.'s in painting their portraits for this year's academy. Mummies were usually preserved in bitumen or the best pitch, says the London Tattler. This blended with the bone of the mummy gives a peculiarly beautiful tint, especially in brown or dark blue.

A Western Welcome.

Some years ago Rev. Dr. Talmage was compelled to stop over a day in Wichita, Kas., while on a western journey. He asked a man at the depot for the best hotel, and he was directed to a rather tough place, much frequented by cowboys and ranchers. He hadn't been in the house five minutes until a big, blue-shirted man sauntered up and challenged him to play the first seven points for the drinks.

The Captain's Isolation.

A captain in the "King's Navies" is something of a floating Crusoe. The ward room constitutes a mess where men meet man on terms of equality, but the captain is an isolated being. Even when he comes on deck he is severely alone unless he calls some one to him. This is all conducive to the majesty of the crown which he is supposed to represent, but it makes things a little lonely for the captain.

Mixed as to Authors.

A lawyer in a Missouri town was making frequent references to the Bible and Shakespeare in his address to the jury. He concluded in this burst of eloquence: "Nearly 500 years ago the lowly Nazarene stood on the round top hills of Judea and proclaimed unto the world that he who steals my good name leaves me poor, indeed."

Pursuit of Truth.

The business of the scholar is the pursuit of truth. He is to find out and formulate the facts regardless of creeds, teachings or traditions, decrees of councils, or votes of assemblies. If he does less than this he is a coward and a deserter. If he does more he is a demagogue and a charlatan.—President Hyde of Bowdoin College.

A Mean Insultation.

Somebody once sent Senator Burrows a big bunch of roses and he had them taken to his committee room. The Senator refused to tell who sent the flowers, saying mysteriously: "They are from an admiring friend." A colleague raised a roar of laughter by remarking: "Oh, bought them yourself, eh?"

Deafness Has Advantages.

At Topeka the other day, says the Kansas City Journal, a deaf man was killed while walking on the railroad track. On the same day near Wichita a deaf man saw a young woman frantically beckoning to him. He thought she wanted to flirt and stepped off the track just as a 'Frisco train whizzed by.

What St. Louis Can Do.

St. Louis enjoys the distinction of furnishing a French audience whenever a Frenchman of eminence visits that city, who can understand and appreciate what he says. New Orleans and New York are the only other cities in the United States that can do it.

Three Hundred Degrees of Cold.

Fahrenheit, by the action of salt on ice, secured what was then thought to be the lowest temperature attainable and used it as the basis of his thermometer; but now, through the use of liquefied gases, a temperature of 300 degrees Fahrenheit is easily produced.

Gives Up Equipment for Charity.

Dr. Theodore Kohn, the prince bishop of Olmutz, Austria, offers his golden chariot and eight horses for sale, to use the money for the benefit of the poor. The carriage has been in the possession of the bishopric for several hundred years.

Push Necessary.

"I tell you," said the doctor, "it's the man who can push himself along that succeeds best in this world." "Not at all," replied the professor. "It's the man who can shove others out of his way that succeeds best."

Belgium Densely Populated.

The recent census returns show that the population of Belgium now stands at 6,633,810, having doubled during the last 69 years. Belgium is now the most densely populated country in Europe.

Review of Saratoga Racing

Most Successful Meet
In History of Famous
Track

"THE AMERICAN ASCOT"

THE racing season just ended at the famous "Queen of Spas," Saratoga, N. Y., was the most successful in the history of the Saratoga racing association from every point of view. The entries and attendance established new records, and horse owners from all parts of the country have carried off goodly shares of rich prizes. "The Ascot of America" is the title applied to the establishment, and every person that attended the races will readily state that the com-ways present a festive scene, with its gathering of daintily attired men and daintily gowned women. Like the enlarged grand stand now seating 6,000 people, the clubhouse is so situated as to avoid the afternoon sun, which formerly shone directly into the eyes of spectators, causing no little discomfort, and in appointment both buildings are well prepared to provide for the refreshment and convenience of the visitors. The old paddock has been torn down and a new one built, which is 220 feet long, 80 feet wide and contains twenty-five stalls.

On the opposite side of the tracks, across from the clubhouse and grand stand, are the stables of many prominent New Yorkers who race their horses at the spa. This settlement is called "millionaires' row," and under the picturesque, low slanting roofs are sheltered practically every well known equine thoroughbred in the east, and a worthy delegation from the west.

The Saratoga stables have accommodations for about 1,500 horses, almost as many as those that can be housed at Sheephead Bay, New York, the largest racing establishment in America, and probably the most imposing of the private establishments there is that of August Belmont, chairman of the Jockey club. Mr. Belmont has spent a large fortune on his headquarters there. He has built a half mile track for the exercising of his horse, which encircles his stables, and access to the buildings is had by means of a tunnel under the course, thus permitting his horses to have uninterrupted sway during their training operations. The tunnel is lighted by electricity and connects with the main racing track. The action of Mr. Belmont in establishing a permanent stable at Saratoga on a somewhat elaborate plan is significant of the increased interest in racing affairs at the spa and of the added importance of the position the course has attained under the new regime. Other prominent factors in American racing will doubtless follow Mr. Belmont's example, and these, together with Mr. Whitney's estate there, will form a notable colony.

George Gould created somewhat of a sensation at the spa by stating his in-parison with the great English course is not a high flight of imagination, but is justified by facts.

The fashionable world was strikingly in evidence at Saratoga—in fact, dominating everything else—and the consensus of opinion is that not even in the days of the old Saratoga racing association and historic Monmouth park, at Long Branch, N. J., when the two brothers Jerome, the late Pierre Lorillard, the late August Belmont, William H. Travers, David Dunham Wilkes and John Hunter led the racing way, has so aristocratic an atmosphere pervaded a course on this side of the Atlantic.

To the persons familiar with the Saratoga track of old the innovations in the "new Saratoga" are plainly evident. On all sides are seen the results of the carefully studied plan of improvement outlined and carried into effect by President William C. Whitney, of the association, and his immediate official associates, F. R. Hitchcock, vice president; H. K. Knapp, secretary, and Andrew Miller, treasurer. The board of directors is composed of William C. Whitney, R. T. Wilson, Jr., T. Hitchcock, F. R. Hitchcock, Andrew Miller, H. K. Knapp, Perry Belmont, W. W. Worden, J. H. Alexander, Philip J. Dwyer, Jack G. Folinsbee, J. H. Bradford and J. G. Heckscher, the first five named comprising the executive committee.

At a cost of more than a quarter of a million dollars the grand stand, clubhouse, track and paddock have been renovated and rebuilt, and at the present time there is no course in the country better calculated to charm the eye and satisfy the desire of its patrons. The groves of beautifully foliaged trees, the expansive, well kept greensward and the beds of blossoming flowers form an ensemble inspiring nature lovers, and the harmonious scheme of architecture blends gracefully into the scene.

There are three tracks at Saratoga, the dirt track, the turf course, inside the former, and on the level field is the course for steeplechasers. The turf track will not be used at all this year, for it is the intention to grow the grass to have a full year's growth in order that it may become firmly rooted. From the clubhouse is obtained a superb panoramic view of the three spreading arenas, and its verandas attention of buying part of the stable of Clarence H. Mackay, whose retirement from the turf, caused by the death of his father, John W. Mackay, has aroused widespread regret. Should Mr. Gould form a racing stable, he will receive a royal welcome, for he is a thoroughly representative American millionaire sportsman. The eldest son of the late Jay Gould is a striking contrast to his father, who never identified himself with sports, choosing rather to devote his entire attention to his financial interests.

The Saratoga races are a splendid preparatory course for the autumn meeting of the Coney Island (New York) Jockey club at Sheephead Bay. Two-year-olds are particularly entered to at the spa, and a rare opportunity is afforded to form an opinion as to the identity of the probable winner of the Futurity, the stellar two-year-old event run at the opening of the meeting. The Sheephead Bay races, which are now on, will continue until the middle of September.

MRS. PATRICK CAMPBELL'S AMERICAN SEASON.

Henrietta Crossman's New Play and the Cuckoo-Management Said to Be Preparing a Surprise For Us.

Mrs. Patrick Campbell is back from Europe. She will open at the Garden theater Sept. 15 in "Aunt Jeannette." Mrs. Campbell will not be under the Lieder management this year, those managers having, it is reported, thought that as the blurb was taken from the rose, so to speak, by the lady's last visit to this country, the public would scarcely be willing to pay "88 per cent" to see her again, and the terms demanded by the cunning actress put any lower tariff of admission out of the question. Now, it remains to be seen whether or not the American public will be willing to pay a dollar more per seat to see Mrs. Campbell than it is obliged to pay to see Mrs. Fiske, who is ten times as good an actress. Still, Mrs. Campbell is "English, you know," and that fact may serve to lure the more or less nimble dollars from the pockets of those who fondly imagine that paying exorbitant prices for anything will cause them to be regarded as being "in the swim." But, perhaps, after all, Charles Frohman, Mrs. Campbell's manager, will give New Yorkers a surprise by charging only regular prices of admission during that lady's engagement at the Garden theater.

That Mrs. Robert Osborn, the ex-society woman who has leased the old Berkeley Lyceum, which she has rechristened "Mrs. Robert Osborn's Playhouse," is not above the ordinary devices of theatrical managers is shown by her employment of a press agent, whose first brilliant effort is herewith appended:

Mrs. Robert Osborn has made arrangements with Mr. A. H. Hummel whereby he will act as permanent counsel for Mrs. Osborn's playhouse.

Fletcher Norton, the English baritone under engagement to Mrs. Robert Osborn for her playhouse, was specially engaged to sing last night (Wednesday) at the musicale which Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr., gave at her Newport villa in conjunction with the dinner in honor of Mrs. Michael Herbert, wife of the new English ambassador to this country and also Mrs. Vanderbilt's sister.

Isn't it all very funny?

For the coming season Henrietta Crossman has surrounded herself with a remarkably strong lot of players, who will appear with her in the production of "The Sword of the King." Her leading man will be Charles Cherry, who will be starred by Maurice Campbell season after next. Sheridan Black, recently Richard Mansfield's leading man, will have a strong part, and Henry Bergman is said to have a character well suited to him. The others in Miss Crossman's support include such well known players as Ida Vernon, Barton Hill, William Herbert, Gertrude Bennett, Addison Pitt, Frederick C. Bertrand, Edwin Fowler, F. J. McCarthy, Henry Gibson and Arthur Shaw. In "The Sword of the King" Miss Crossman has a dashing comedy part and appears in two acts as a boy. The play was written by Ronald Macdonald, the son of an English clergyman, and will be staged by Eugene Presbury.

Masegni has a surprise in store for those whose only idea of Italian opera have been gained from performances by companies composed of singers of several nationalities or from the various Italian organizations which have toured this country from time to time. A full Italian company of the highest class has never been brought to America, and the composer of "Cavalleria Rusticana" purposes bringing here such a one as would be greeted with acclaim at La Scala, Milan or the Costanza, Rome. The works of Masegni, Verdi, Puccini and the other Italian masters cannot properly be performed by a mixed cast in which the tenor is a Frenchman, the soprano a native of Dresden, the contralto an American and the basso a Pole. The spirit of the Italian race is necessary if the true inner feeling of "Cavalleria Rusticana," "Tris," "Aida" or other masterpieces of the same school is to be revealed. No one knows this better than Masegni. He promises that his singers will be the best that Italy can produce—artists in the fullest sense of the word—and the composer says they will not only bear comparison with those of the other lands who have visited America, but will excel most of them.

A Scarce Article!

Is a ways appreciated. "Pope says 'A glutted market makes provisions cheap.' But when you can buy anything so scarce as good anthracite coal at our prices you are actually securing a bargain. We keep only the best and send it to your order clean and full weight. Although the strike has lessened our supply, we can still send you coal.

A YEAR OF ROOSEVELT.

The Review of Reviews prints a pertinent article on the subject of President Roosevelt. It takes him up as the man, as the statesman and as the president for the past year. Coming as it does at this time when a year ago President McKinley was shot by the assassin it is timely. An extract of the article is as follows:

"Nothing would be more obvious than that the country is well satisfied with President Roosevelt's conduct during the first twelve months as Chief Magistrate. It will be one year, on the 11th of the present month since President McKinley's tragic death at Buffalo, and the administering of the oath of office to his successor. Mr. Roosevelt has fulfilled all reasonable expectations. He has shown marvelous adaptability in every direction, has given untiring industry to the varied details of his great office, and has borne the strain with unfailing physical vigor and imperishable good temper. He has stood strongly for the politics which he believed to be wise and right for the country, without any sacrifice of agreeable personal relations with all the leaders of his own party, and, in fact, with all public men with whatever affiliation. His appointments have been felicitous, and, in general, highly praised. He holds the good will of the Democratic South almost as completely as of the Republican Northwest. He is persona grata in New England, and is idolized west of the Missouri River. He maintains good relations with the party leaders of New York and Pennsylvania, and has the hearty approval of the plain people of those great states. That he will be renominated in 1904 is now considered to be even more probable than was Mr. McKinley's renomination in the middle of his first term. Never, indeed, since the early days of the republic has it appeared so likely that a president would be his own successor. This, of course, in a sense pertains to 1904 rather than 1902. But it is well to appreciate the fact that this remarkable popularity of the president, and this quite general approval of the administration as a whole, form a very important element in the political atmosphere that surrounds the electoral situations this fall."

NEED MORE MONEY.

The subscription committee of the Business Men's Association who are out to raise the $4000 necessary to secure the Hough Porch Shade company for this city are confident that they will raise the required amount. They now have about half of what is necessary to bring the factory to this city. In some instances they have met with unexpected success and in others have been turned down where they should have received some thing. There is no question but that the factory will be a good thing for Janesville. It is all right and an institution that any city would be proud to have numbered among its manufacturing enterprises. Janesville should not allow this chance to get a first class factory to slip away from them. The committee should be given all the assistance possible in this work. It is a thankless task and they are really giving up their time for the benefit of others.

These American officers who go over to Germany to see the German military maneuvers are to receive the glad hand and all its emoluments, horses, equipments and English speaking aides. It will be a nice trip with lots of fun and maybe these selfsame officers can pick up a few tips on how the German officers dress so that they add more fandangies to the American uniform when they get back.

PRESS COMMENT.

Green Bay Gazette: The man at Delavan Lake who saw a forty foot sea serpent had evidently been using marine glasses—schooners.

Buffalo Express: The Racine man who put carbolic acid on a corn and has now lost his toe has discovered one cure all right.

Washington Star: After all, the possession of the automobile is a mark of superiority to some extent. To own one a man must be rich and to run it without an arrest or a smash-up he must be clever.

St. Paul Dispatch: Some Wisconsin women have organized a society to study shirtmaking. There is no limit to the extremes to which women will go to revenge themselves upon their husbands.

Minneapolis Journal: The democrats in Wisconsin who are reaching out for a gubernatorial nomination remind their friends of the boys who start out to find the end of the rainbow.

Detroit Tribune: In view of the fact that Mr. Morgan settle the coal strike if he wants to, we presume that he is holding out for the usual commission—half the mines and all the direction.

Chicago News: Had the Wisconsin farmer who purchased the Masonic Temple some time ago for a few hundred dollars known about the tax tangle doubtless he would have hesitated before closing the deal.

Fond du Lac Commonwealth: At the prevailing prices of anthracite it is little wonder that James E Conklin, a Madison coal dealer, has turned down the office as warden at Waupun, which pays a paltry $2,000 a year.

Chicago Record-Herald: M. Santos-Dumont angrily says Chicago and New York men who pretend to want to assist in developing aerial navigation "deal in hot air." Isn't the hot air one of the principle factors in aerial navigation?

Boston Journal: The number of Wisconsin republicans who believe that the retention of Mr. Spooner in the senate has nothing to do with Gov. LaFollette's views on state questions is increasing so rapidly that there seems to be a little doubt of the Senator's re-election without terms.

Chicago Tribune: To be sure, a great deal of coal can be saved on ocean steamers by making slower time. Some economy may be effected this winter, moreover, in the matter of heating dwellings by closing the other rooms and living in the kitchen.

St. Paul Pioneer-Press: Canada thinks that within another decade it will be supplying all the wheat that England can consume. This will be soothing to those Englishmen who have been on the verge of nervous prostration because Great Britain has dependent upon the United States for the bread that it eats.

La Crosse Republican and Leader: Shippers are still appealing to the rail roads for cars, and the shortage threatens to as great as it was last year, notwithstanding the strenuous efforts made by the roads to put on more rolling stock. This arises from the fact that the business of the country is growing even more rapidly than the railroad facilities. Excessive prosperity is sometimes an embarrassment, but after all, it is more satisfactory than the reverse condition.

Oshkosh Northwestern: It is reported that the whiskey distilleries of the country have a large surplus of goods of that nature on which the bonded period has nearly expired, and it is believed that a strong effort will be made to induce the next congress to reduce the tax before the time limit is up. There is no particular reason, however, why the people of the country are in need of cheap whiskey and the efforts of the distillers will come to naught.

State Journal: Prof. Barnes thinks it is a bad thing for children to have too great a variety of toys, because it tends to over-stimulation of the brain. He says that an iron engine with two or three cars, a good supply of building blocks and a limited Noah's Ark make an ample list for a boy of six.

Mantowoc Times-Press: The republican party cannot allow the charges made by such men as Senator Stont and ex-Speaker Buckstaff to go un-answered. They are of too serious a nature to be ignored. For if such things can be done without protest or investigation what becomes of all ideas of reform? Certainly, an administration that has paraded its pretensions to exceptional honesty cannot consistently permit to go unchallenged the charge that it made a deal or sell a nomination.

Platteville Witness: The Witness has seen it repeatedly published, and also proclaimed by prominent republicans, that the stalwart wing of the party were opposed to tax reform as well as the primary election bill. This is a mistake. The stalwarts have never opposed taxation reform, and many of them are in favor of a primary election—but not the bill that Governor LaFollette tried to force through the legislature. If a satisfactory primary election law is presented it will receive the support of many republicans, but we very much doubt whether anything that will satisfy a majority of the republicans in the state will ever be presented.

Milwaukee Journal: A man who enjoys the confidence of Your Uncle Isaac Stephenson and spends many an hour chatting with him, said the other day that everything on the inside of the Half-Breed breastworks is amused at the childlike display of some of the stalwarts, who appear to think that there would be a let-up in the movement to get Senator Spooner's political scalp. The only tie between LaFollette and Stephenson is hatred of Spooner, and without Stephenson's financial backing the half-breed organization would not hold out long.

The amount of money that has been spent on newspapers and other forms of printing will be realized by anybody who will take pencil and paper and sit down and make some figures. Running daily newspapers that have practically no income is about as expensive a job as can be undertaken. There are a number of such in the half-breed camp.

REV. TIPPETT'S GOOD SERMON

HIS TEXT WAS FROM THE PHILIPPINES.

TOPIC: 'THE UNKNOWN SAINTS'

Gives a Pleasing Talk for Young and Old on Christ's Work.

In his Sunday sermon the Rev. Tippet of the Court Street Methodist church chose to extol those saints whose lives are unchronicled save in the book of life. The texts from which he drew the theme was Philippians IV, 3: "With Clement also, and with other fellow laborers whose names are in the book of life."

The general relaxation of the summer months, and the threatening aspect of the sky in the early morning, together tended to thin the usual audience, but those who were present listened with great interest to the ardent address which Rev. Tippet delivered. His denunciation of the unjust award of praise which is usually accorded by the multitude, and by the press, was hearty and sincere.

Clement Only A Name

Saint Paul evidently knew this man Clement well, and found him worth knowing. To us Clement is nothing but a name. We know that he helped Paul, and that is the only record we have of him. Of the others who are mentioned in the same verse, we have not even their names. In fact they are not even designated by number.

The Book Of Life

This book of life must be a ponderous tome by this time. For years the angels have been busied in compiling it, and many have passed away who were worthy of being enrolled therein.

In the gospels we are given a mere glimpse of the seventy early disciples. In addition to this we know that there were one hundred and twenty of the founders of the first church. Aside from these facts we know no more of them as individuals than that their names are enrolled on the book of life. All through the Acts and the Epistles, not more than thirty in all of the early Christians are named.

Unchronicled Saints

This suggests a multitude such as no man can name of unchronicled saints. The history of God's kingdom has never yet been written by human pen. It might be asked "Have we not libraries of ecclesiastical history, volumes which tell of the growth of the various churches, numberless lives of those who have struggled for and against different creeds, and chronicle after chronicle of those dissensions which have been in the fabric of the church from its inception?"

But all of this has been but the story of strikes and conflicts, dissensions which have racked the church and torn down its tenets. This has been the narrative of creed making and creed breaking. The history of the church is not in this. It is in the lives of those pure and devoted souls who have kept their lives pregnant with a living fruitage, not with dead formulas.

Press Is Partial

Only the most indelible part of those who have labored for the upbuilding of the kingdom have ever been chronicled in the secular press. Vox populi is rarely vox dei. It is an easy matter to gain a name in the newspapers. It may be done not by keeping commandments but by breaking them. It may be done, not by writing a book on theology, but on the sensational crimes of the world, on dubious topics and naïveté indecencies.

Misrepresent the World

It would be a great mistake to judge the world by these things. The nation is purer and more noble than that. These events are merely as scum on the surface of the water.

Sunday Theater Scored

Not many have spoken of the Sunday theater, tonight. So far as can be ascertained none of our aldermen have spoken against it, none of our prominent men have protested. But there is no doubt that it will be just as miserable and as rotten as anything that has come to the city in the same way. No doubt many of the reputable citizens of Janesville will be there. And no doubt the newspapers of tomorrow will give more space to the theater than to any sermon or religious gathering.

Chronicled in Heaven

This means that a conscientious Christian life is one of the things which God considers worthy of chronicle. The scandal of society, the freaks of statesmen, are looked upon by him with contempt, if there is any contempt in Heaven. Yet we read that all heaven is moved when one sinner repents. Not one of the latter is overlooked, but those things which the world chronicles pass unmentioned.

Bread on Waters

The preacher who uses his pen is casting bread upon the waters. He is making a shot into the darkness and he knows not where it will alight. In such labors there is satisfaction to feel that the book of life will alight. In such labors there is satisfaction to feel that the book of life will be a reward. If it is true that the pen is mightier than the sword care should be taken that it is not left in the hands of the devil.

Miller-Fisk

The marriage of Miss Nellie Miller of this city and W. H. Fisk of Beloit took place yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the Court Street church parsonage, the Rev. J. H. Tippet officiating. The bride and groom were attended by Miss Maggie Hogan of this city and James Boyle of Beloit. The young people will make their home in Beloit where the groom is employed.

Millionth Visitor in Luck.

When the millionth visitor passed through the turnstile at the Dusseldorf exhibition he was presented by a valuable gold watch and chain.

OPPOSE SUNDAY NIGHT SHOWS

Resolution at Union Meeting Urges Management to Reconsider the Policy.

At the union service of the churches Sunday evening the following resolution was adopted which will speak for itself.

"Whereas, the opera house in this city, contrary to the time honored custom, now opens its house for performances on Sunday evening to the prejudice of the public welfare and to the cause of religion, therefore be it resolved that the members of these churches uniting in this city deplore this secularization of the Sabbath, and urge upon the management of the opera house the reconsideration of that policy which he has recently entered, and upon all the people in the city co-operation in the preservation of the sanctity of the Sabbath."

In an introductory speech Rev. Vaughan stated that it was not the purpose of those who drew up the resolution that it should be understood as in any way antagonistic to the theater, but only as expressing the desire of the people of the city for the observance of the Sabbath.

NEWS OF THE CITY IN BRIEF.

Baby Boy: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hume of 56 Park avenue rejoice in the arrival of a baby boy on Friday last.

Omega Council: There will be a regular meeting of Omega Council No 214 Royal League Monday evening September 1.

Another False Alarm: Saturday about 12:30 o'clock some one looking for trouble pulled box 18 located at the West Side Engine house and turned in an alarm of fire. After turning in the alarm they made good use of their legs and succeeded in getting away.

Had A Bad Fall: Mrs. Moore, an aged lady residing at the corner of Racine and Madison streets, received a bad fall Saturday afternoon and fractured her right arm near the shoulder. The injured lady is nearly seventy years of age and the hurt is quite serious for this reason. Dr. Mills was called and attended to her injuries.

A Pleasant Party: Miss Olive Corneau entertained a party of her young friends on Saturday night at the Hotel Corneau in honor of her cousin, Miss Winifred Kneeland of Madison. Dinner was served in the dining room at seven o'clock. The room had been handsomely decorated for the occasion and presented a pretty picture. Miss Corneau proved herself a charming hostess and her guests spent a very pleasant evening.

Touching Benevolence.

"We want the people not to patronize the hated opposition that is now springing up," wailed the man who represented an incompetent monopoly. "We are not afraid of competition, but we know the other people will lose money at their venture, and we can't bear to see them do it."

Learning.

Elizabeth, a little Boston girl, is 7 this summer. Quite an old girl now is Elizabeth. "You do not mind me as well as you did when you were two years old," observed her grandmother. "You see, I didn't know anything then, and so, of course, I always did just what any one told me to," replied Elizabeth.

LABOR DAY IS WELL OBSERVED

A LARGE PARADE OF WORKMEN MARCH THE STREETS.

PICNIC AT CRYSTAL SPRINGS

Music Plays, and the Crowd Is Happy—Games at the Park.

Union labor ruled the streets today. From early morning men and women wearing union badges walked the streets, until the hour when they took place. There with speeches, games and dancing the day was passed.

Long Parade.

All expectations in regard to the success of the parade were realized. Every union in the city was represented by nearly the full force of its members and the column extended over a space of several blocks. The procession was formed as follows:

Marshall of the Day George Hubbard.

Carriage containing the speakers of the day.

Women's Union Label League. Float with children of union men. Imperial band.

Teamsters with their wagons. Cigar makers. Federal Trades Union.

Tailors. Leather workers. Woodworkers.

Typographical Union. Machinists. Marshal Charles Young.

Pipe and Drum Corps. Painters and Paper Hangers. Metal Workers.

Shoe makers. Carpenters and Joiners. Bricklayers, Masons and Plasterers.

The Speakers

In the carriage of speakers at the head of the procession were Thomas P. Morgan of Chicago, J. J. Cunningham, W. H. Phelps, and Mrs. P. J. McKeligue. The last is president of the Women's Union Label League, which organization was well represented in three wagonettes trimmed in purple and white.

At The Grounds

At the grounds the program included games and sports of all kinds in addition to the regular addresses of the afternoon. Baldwin and Rehfeld's orchestra furnished music for the dancing for both the afternoon and evening.

SCHOOLS TO OPEN ON SEPTEMBER 15

Improvements in Buildings and New Teachers Will Great the Pupils' Eye.

The public schools will open on September 15 and Superintendent Duell is kept busy these days getting the buildings ready for the young folks that will assemble at that time. There will be three new teachers in the high school this season. Miss Acker of Madison will take the place made vacant by the resignation of Miss Lange. Miss Decker, a graduate of the University of Michigan will take Miss Holt's place and Miss Thayer will preside in the domestic art rooms in place of Miss Hostetter. There will be a number of new teachers in the ward schools but the most of them are graduates of the Janesville schools.

FIRST SUNDAY NIGHT THEATRE

It Was Good, and Well Attended—Play, "Hottest Coon in Dixie."

If last night's large and enthusiastic audience may be taken as an index the Sunday theater at the Myers Grand will be well patronized. The play chosen for that date was most worthy of a crowded house. For a second performance from brand-new lines the "Trouble Makers" and exceptionally well.

A Musical Comedy

"The Hottest Coon in Dixie" is a musical comedy by Harry Dull with the musical accompaniment by Hugo Korach, who personally presided at the piano Sunday night. The cast is colored without exception and possesses several artists of more than average ability.

Specialties

The specialties won a continuous round of hearty applause. Carl has been billed as a prestidigitator for many years and to display his ability a clever magic act has been introduced. Few negro comedians are as successful as Billy Miller and of the ladies Mamie Holman is his equal at entertaining the house.

What Twenty Acres Will Do.

It is estimated that twenty-two acres of land are necessary to sustain one man on fresh meat. The same space of land, if devoted to wheat culture, would feed forty-two people; if to oats, eighty-eight; potatoes, Indian corn and rice, 176, and if to the plantain or bread-fruit tree, over 6,000 people.

Agricultural Banks in Turkey.

The empire of Turkey possesses an extensive system of agricultural banks under government management, the purpose of which is to furnish small loans to farmers. The capital is provided by a light annual tax on agricultural property. Principal agencies have been established in sixty-five cities, capitals of provinces or counties, and there are 803 branches in less important places.

Freezing Out Hay Fever.

It is asserted that hay fever can be frozen out. One patient went to the cold storage vaults of a wholesale provision dealer. He wandered for nearly an hour among the carcasses of frozen bullocks, chickens and hams in a temperature twenty degrees below freezing point and since then has neither sneezed nor wanted to do so.

FUNERAL IS HELD THIS AFTERNOON

The Remains of the Late Burton F. Nowlan Are Laid at Rest.

This afternoon the funeral services of the late Burton F. Nowlan were held from his late residence at 107 South Second street, conducted by the Rev. Burrington. The interment was at Oak Hill cemetery. The services were those of the Episcopal church and were impressively read by the minister. There were many floral tributes to the departed. The pall bearers were Dr. Joe Whitling, H. H. McKinney, Frederick Burpee, Marshall Richardson, Edward Spaulding and Chas H. Gage.

AFTERNOON CARD PARTY GIVEN

Mrs. Charles Gage Entertained Forty Ladies Last Saturday Afternoon.

Mrs. Charles Gage entertained about forty ladies at cards on Saturday afternoon at her home on South Second street. This was the fourth of a series of afternoon social events, all of which have been most enjoyable. Luncheon was served during the afternoon and the card prize was awarded to Mrs. Frank L. Smith.

A HOUSE DIVIDED.

FATHER a pinner is, neglecting his home and his biz; In his club night and day He is ever at play, Just pausing at times for a fizz.

Mother is studying art In a course she was crazy to start. Old masters and such, Both Italian and Dutch, She knows their productions by heart.

A commode jaunty is Frank; On yachting and yachts he's a crank. He has sailed twice around The blue Long Island sound And has much overdrawn at the bank.

Helen is learning to fence; Her future is something immense. She does nothing but dream Of quarte, secunde and prime, And her flesh is all covered with dents.

Margie on golfing is daft, Pursuing it morning and aft, Appearing to thrive By the length of her drive, But wretched whenever she has a scuff.

Harold's a daring chauffeur, A regular fiend, as it were; His machine goes so fast As it tears bravely past That all you can see is its "whirr!"

A slumber unending is Dea, And, dimly lifting her dress, She trips up and down Throughout Tenement town On the lookout for worthy distress.

Thus witness a family torn Where each to his bid is sworn And thinks his own bid Is the best to be had And holds all the others in scorn.

—Puck.

Self Denial.

Parson—Do you go automobileing on Sunday?
"Oh, yes, but I never run over any one on that day."—New York Journal.

He Reasoned Wrong.

"It's all knowing how to reason," said the Pittsburgh man as he sighed in a sorrowful way. "I owned a house and lot in a town in our state and was getting a good rent for them when a congregation built a church right on the line. I reasoned it out that the place was spoiled, and when I was offered three-fifths of its former value I made haste to close the deal. I patted myself on the back over that bit of good luck."
"And wasn't it good luck?" was asked.
"Not a bit of it. I'm a clean thousand dollars out of pocket for reasoning him end to. The chap who bought my place had twin babies, a piano, a fiddle and a barking dog, and the congregation hadn't occupied that church over four Sundays when it raised a purse and bought him out for twice the value of the place."

Morpheus and Multiplication.

An English temperance advocate was once arguing the case of a public house reform. Pressing the matter home, he thus addressed Lord Salisbury: "At least, my lord, you will admit that a great increase in the number of drinking places in a given locality is an additional temptation to overindulgence."
"Not at all," retorted Salisbury. "If I visit in a home with forty bedrooms, I feel no greater inclination to sleep."—San Francisco Argonaut.

"Limited."

"Have you done anything to make the human race richer and happier?" asked the big hearted philanthropist.
"Well," answered the man with lecler in his arteries, "I haven't had time to experiment on any member of the human race except myself, and in that connection I can truthfully say I have done my best."—Washington Star.

Too Much.

She (sitting up suddenly in the hammock)—How dare you kiss my ankle! You allow yourself too much latitude! He (in mock penitence)—Forgive me! Perhaps 'twas because you allowed yourself so much latitude.—San Francisco Town Talk.

Not Wholly a Surprise.

"Was his death unexpected?"
"Not entirely, I guess. At all events the widow had plans drawn several weeks before he passed away for an addition to the house to be built with the insurance money."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Merely a Suggestion.

Miss Thirtyodd—I want to give my fiancé a surprise on his birthday. Can't you suggest something?
Miss De Flipp—Well, you might tell him your age.—Chicago News.

At the Automobile Club.

Saggs—Poor Scruggs is terribly blue this morning. I hear he ran over a man!
Tages—No; he missed him.—Ohio State Journal.

A Great Talk.

Clara—I should say she did. Why, even her tongue is sunburned.—Life.

A RETROSPECT OF THE TENNIS SEASON.

English Invasion the Year's Principal Feature—Doherty's Are Superb Players.

Greatest of all tennis players are the Doherty brothers of England, and their victorious career at the various tournaments in which they have participated shows them to have mastered the game to a sensational degree. These British brothers, in fact, have contributed largely to the success and picturesque quality of probably the most interesting season in the history of American tennis.

Beginning early in the spring, east, west, north and south the racket wielders evinced active interest in local, state and sectional tournaments.

H. L. DOHERTY, THE ENGLISH CHAMPION, determining to place the game once more in the high position it held before golf, cycling, etc., robbed it of its supremacy. The measure of their success can readily be noted by glancing over the records of the year. Entries have doubled, attendance at matches doubled and expenditure tripled. Surely this is a vindication if any one deems that tennis needs vindication.

Probably the greatest surprise of the year was the defeat by the Dohertys of Holcombe Ward of Orange, N. J., and Dwight F. Davis of St. Louis in the international and national championship doubles. While it was generally conceded on this side during the summer that the Britons had an admirable chance to carry home the doubles title, few impartial observers who had gone over the situation carefully could see where they could worst the American champions. A comparison of the two doubles teams on a strict form basis gave a very bright aspect to the American side of the question, but after the visitors arrived and showed at Longwood, Mass., that they were playing a game nothing short of superlative the Yankee hearts began to beat with less confidence.

In the international matches at Bay Ridge, New York, the Britons won out simply through superior endurance. They have the art of saving strength down to a science, and, although Ward and Davis took the first set in easy fashion, the visitors never let that fact bother them for a moment. They seldom made an unnecessary move, never making an effort to get a return that appeared out of reach. In this particular they presented a sharp contrast to the Americans, who tried for almost everything that came over the net. Consequently, while the Britishers did not play a spectacular game at all times, they reserved every ounce of energy for the final games. Their victory in the last three sets at Bay Ridge showed the superiority of their studied method.

In few contests on this side did the Dohertys start out in winning form.

H. L. DOHERTY, WHO DEFEATED CHAMPION LARNED AT BAY RIDGE, NEW YORK.

Both in individual matches and doubles the opening games invariably went to the Americans. At Newport, in the national championships, however, they took the doubles championship in straight sets.

Great Unmarked Pacer.

The best unmarked pacer at the present time is no doubt Junius, by On-line. He can easily beat his half brother, Greendale, 2:07 1/2.

New Style of Incubation.

An investigator of an original turn of mind has appeared in the person of a Moscow student named Kolomozeff, who in eighteen days has succeeded in hatching the egg of a guinea fowl under his left armpit. He already has a host of imitators, who are trying experiments in the hatching of the eggs of geese and ducks.—St. Petersburg Correspondence London Mail.

Tale of a Dog.

Stories of dogs which have drowned themselves in fits of despair have been not infrequent, but the narrative of the intelligent beast in Hoboken which was condemned to death, and after receiving sentence in court tried to bite the magistrate who sealed his doom, is refreshingly novel. What can be the limit of canine understanding of human speech?

Clarence Mackay a Business Man.

Clarence H. Mackay, who succeeds to a vast estate by the death of his father, has been in training a long time for the duties he now takes up. He is either vice president or director in most of the corporations with which his father was connected and is believed to be fully capable of assuming control.

French Election "Barkers."

The election "barker" is peculiar to French soil. At critical moments in a candidate's speech the "barker" puts him out by imitating a dog, and a really good man at the business is worth good money at such times. Half a dozen of them in Paris earn enough at election times to last them for a year.

In Honor of Wade Hampton.

Citizens of Charleston, S. C., are urging that the name of Meeting street, one of the widest and most important streets in their city, be changed to Hampton avenue, in memory of the late Gen. Wade Hampton. In Columbia, too, there is talk of having a Hampton street or avenue.

Long Life of Baby Carriage.

A baby carriage which is a miniature of "the deacon's one-horse shay," and was presented to Henry L. Dawes while in congress in the '60s, when it was announced that he was the father of a bouncing boy, is now being repaired to do service for Henry L. Dawes III.

Resemblance Causes Annoyance.

Rev. Frank B. Rose, a chaplain in the United States navy, bears a strong resemblance to Admiral Dewey. He and his wife were in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., recently and the rumor got abroad that the admiral was in town. Mr. and Mrs. Rose took a trolley ride in the afternoon and were followed by such crowds that it was necessary for some one to announce that he was not Admiral Dewey and that the demonstration was annoying. Then the visitors were left in peace.

OLD MURDER MYSTERY FINALLY CLEARED UP

Lad Supposed to Have Been Killed Thirty-three Years Ago Is Still Alive.

Watertown, N. Y., Aug. 30.—Mystery surrounding a supposed murder, believed to have been committed near here thirty-three years ago, has been cleared up by the discovery of the "victim," hale and hearty, at Minneapolis. He is on the way from that city to join the remaining members of his family. Thomas Frederick was a lad of 16 thirty-three years ago, when he was employed on the farm of Chas. Plekett, near Redwood. After a dispute over milking Plekett knocked the boy down. Frederick disappeared. There were no witnesses to the occurrence and no arrests were made. Plekett grieved over the suspicion against him and died a few years later. His widow survived him only a few years. The boy's parents also are dead and his brothers and sisters only recently learned of his whereabouts through a letter he addressed to the postmaster at Redwood.

A Good Hearted Man,

or in other words, men with good sound hearts, are not very numerous. The increasing number of sudden deaths from heart disease daily chronicled by the press, is proof of the alarming prevalence of this dangerous complaint, and as no one can foretell just when a fatal collapse

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure.

J. A. Kreamer of Arkansas City, Kans., says: "My heart was so bad it was impossible for me to lie down, and I could neither sleep nor rest. My decline was rapid, and I realized I must get help soon. I was advised to try Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, which I did, and candidly believe it saved my life."

Wool Lace.
Wool lace is still retained, and there is no abatement of the vogue of Irish crochet and fllet lace; new designs are constantly blossoming out. For gowns of summer silk, velvet or crepe, the trimming most favored is a combination of heavy blind-embroidery on cream or ecru batiste, with fine French guipure. Renaissance lace motifs in which the needle work is done with silk the color of the gown, while the ribbon or braid, unusually heavy, is cream or white, make a most effective decoration.

Wanted—A Plural.
What is the plural of metropolis? Euphony rebels against metropolises. An Australian paper solves the difficulty thus: "The mutual jealousy of Melbourne and Sydney prevents either of these fine cities becoming the commonwealth capital. Why not, then, select one of the smaller metropolises of the states?" The innovation is not justified by any rules of grammar, and illustrates the inconvenience of pressing Greek words into English molds.—London Chronicle.

Lawyer as Indian Chief.
George C. Hume, a lawyer of Chilton, Wis., is about to receive a unique honor. He will be made chief of the Brothertown Indian nation. Mr. Hume added the Indians gratuitously in filing proofs of the validity of their claims against the government, and in return they have elected the lawyer to the chieftainship of the nation. He will accept, as the office is merely a nominal one and will not interfere with his other duties.

Wickedest Capital in Europe.
Ibsen's well known saying that Christiania was the wickedest capital in Europe is borne out by a monster trial against some twenty keepers of baby farms, where wholesale murder of infants has been going on for the last ten or fifteen years. Several of these baby farms had private cemeteries in gardens and fields, where the remains of a small army of tiny corpses were dug up.

Wise Words on Study.
Our studies should be neither a couch on which to rest; nor a cloister in which to promenade alone; nor a tower from which to look down on others; nor a fortress whence we may resist them; nor a workshop for gain and merchandise; but a rich armory and treasury for the glory of the Creator and the ennoblement of life.—Goethe.

Early Settler of Frisco Dead.
Adolphus G. Russ, a pioneer of '47, is dead in San Francisco. At the time when there were not thirty houses in the city he bought for $16 the lots on which the Russ house now stands.
